PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONS

Adult Lego Night

Calling all geeks, nerds, gamers and Adult Fans of Lego! Please join in the Adult Lego Building Contest on Friday, July 21st. Ages 18 and up, registration required.

Baby Storytime

Romp through stories, fingerplays, and rhymes to get your baby giggling and learning. Geared for ages 0-18 mos. Siblings welcome.

Better World Club Volunteer Fair

Summer kick off on the Library's front lawn. Ask questions and connect with local organizations to find volunteer opportunities that fit your schedule and interests.

Book Buzz

Get a librarian's behind-the-scenes look at new and upcoming titles from major American publisher Penguin-Random House at this program for bibliophiles. For teens and adults.

Book Club

Join in the discussion each month on the second Tuesday at 7 p.m. The Book Club meets in the library meeting room. Reservations are not required.

Books & Blocks

This non-traditional storytime is just right for ages 18-36 mos. with the wiggles! Babies, siblings, and children up to kindergarten enrollment are welcome.

Book Squad, Summer Edition

Discuss your favorite reads as well as assigned summer reading. Learn about new books to read. Enjoy a snack, too. For teens entering grades 7-12.

CPR Training

Stay safe this summer. Heartsaver CPR training and certification. Registration required.

Craftivity

Check in at the Youth Services coloring table for all the supplies for a special project!

Dayton Mini Maker Faire

Hailed as "The Greatest Show (and Tell) on Earth," Carillon Historical Park comes alive with tinkerers, inventors, hobbyists—anyone who creates with their hands. This family friendly event features robotics, blacksmithing, rocketry, sewing, steam engines, 3D printing, live demonstrations, and hands-on activities.

Elementary Eco-Activists

We'll read a book and do an earth science activity to learn better ways to take care of our environment and all its living creatures.

Exploring TED Talks

Learn about TED Talks and prepare an idea to audition for TEDxYouth@Dayton. For teens entering grades 7-12, though teens must be 14 by September 2017 to audition.

Family Kickball

An easy-going, community-building game of kickball for all ages. Please bring your own water and wear shoes suitable for running. Katharine Wright Park (behind the library)

Far Hills Speaker Series

Explore the local ancient earthworks and its people. Mark W. Risley of the Oakwood Historical Society will present new discoveries, geological aspects significant to the area, and updated theories on how the first people came to the Americas.

Goldfish Swim School presents "Water Safety"

A fun interactive lesson for ages 3-7, introducing water safety, and methods to avoid and prevent dangers in and around the water.

Let's Go Lego

An open-ended prompt guides young builders at this free play program featuring Legos, Duplos, coloring pages, and books. Parents can join in too!

Next Chapter Book Club

Next Chapter Book Club is a community-based literacy program for those with developmental disabilities. Designed for ages 18 and up.

Outdoor Movie Night

In collaboration with the Oakwood Community Center, the Wright Library presents Lego Batman, projected on a giant screen at Old River! Bring a blanket or lawn chairs and a flashlight - popcorn is provided.

Paws to Read

Read with therapy dogs in the cozy library atmosphere! Walk-ins welcome; however, a minimum of 2 registered attendees are required for the program to occur.

Smith Gardens Storytime

Join us in the cozy atmosphere of Smith Gardens for a special storytime for infants, toddlers, and preschoolers.

Spectrum Playdate

Normative and non-normative children play at activity stations all around the meeting room. A cool down/transition station and a snack station will be included at every playdate.

Summer Reading Club Kickoff

Enjoy constructagons, face painting, and creative activities. Register for a chance to win entry to Kings Island, art camps at K-12, and The Beach.

Tech-Tacular Tuesdays

Explore the business side of technology, mixing musical instruments with musical apps, designing the house of the future, and playing a technology trivia game.

Tech Tutoring

Sign up for one-on-one training session with a Wright Library research librarian for help with devices, software programs, apps, and building tech skills.

Teen Writing Club

Join other teens who are interested in writing fiction and poetry to discuss writing, do some writing, and constructively and kindly critique each other's work. For grades 7-12.

T'ns

Build teen relationships and leadership through fun, games, and creative challenges for teens entering grades 7-12.

Terrific Tales

3-5 year olds and their accompanying adults share stories and rhymes, songs, and crafts to build our social and school-readiness skills! Siblings welcome.

Wright Library Poets

Wright Library Poets is a library sponsored open writing group for adults. We meet monthly in the library meeting room to share our work and hone our craft.
